Chaplain of the Tombs of the Opinion
That the Self-Confessed Slayer of Anna Aumuller is Sailing Under an Alias—Prisoner Denies Dentist,
Now Under Arrest, Helped Him
Cut Up the Body.

New York, Sept. 17.—Hans Schmidt, the former assistant rector of St. Joseph's church, who confessed he killed and cut up the body of Anna Aumuller and dumped the pieces in the Hudson, and Ernest A. Muret, the self-confessed fraudulent dentist, who was arrested in connection with his alleged counterfeiting partnership with the priest, have been formally charged by the federal authorities with carrying on a bogus money-making enterprise.

Four secret service men went to the flat which Muret, as "George Miller" and the priest rigged up as a counterfeiting plant, and confiscated everything in sight. Muret and Schmidt bear a striking resemblance to each other, a fact which has led the police to believe that they may be related, although each man solemnly avers that different blood runs in their veins.

Muret, according to Father Evers, the Catholic chaplain of the Tombs, looks upon Schmidt in the light of "a consummate scoundrel" and called him such, while Schmidt expresses great sorrow that his friend Muret finds himself involved in trouble.

"It is only a personal opinion of mine," said Father Evers, "but I have an idea that this man, who says he is Schmidt, isn't Schmidt at all, but an impostor. He had many fake papers and fake seals. I will send two or three photographs of Schmidt to his parents in Schweinheim, with a request that they send me word if they are the pictures of their son, the priest."

NEW YORK GUNNERS

New York, Sept. 17.—Gunmen, said by the police to be members of rival gangs, whose activity in the primary election led to the renewal of an old feud, engaged in a revolver duel while seated in two automobiles standing in Upper Broadway. No one was injured. Four of the men were arrested, the others escaping.

HUERTA AGAIN USES THE QUILL

SENDS MESSAGE TO HIS CONGRESS

Huerta Refers to Mexico's Relations With United States.

SAYS HE STANDS FOR PEACE

Declares That Whatever Tension Exists Is Between the Governments and Not Between the Peoples of the Two Republics—Makes No Reference to Request That He Eliminate Himself From Presidential Race.

Mexico City, Sept. 17.—Provisional President Huerta in his message to the Mexican congress refers to the tenseness of the diplomatic relations between the Mexican government and the United States, but "luckily not with the people of that country." He expresses the hope that the negotiations with the American government will speedily result in a solution of the differences which have arisen between the two countries. Huerta names 26 nations which have recognized the present government of Mexico.

The provisional president promises on behalf of the government to hold the national elections for the presidency, set for Oct. 26, on schedule time, and adds that arrangements for the holding of these elections are already in progress.

In his reference to the status of the relations between the United States and Mexico, President Huerta insists that there is no crisis between the people of the United States and the people of Mexico, and that whatever tension may exist is between his government and that of President Wilson, who seems to be determined not to recognize him, thus preventing the "pacification" of the sister republic which is its neighbor.

General Huerta carefully avoided in his message any reference to the request that he retire from the government or that he be eliminated as a candidate for president, although he clearly states that he will promptly restore peace and bring about the unrestricted election of a president and vice president.

Those who had expected that President Huerta would explain in his message the latest notes exchanged between the United States and Mexico, as did President Wilson in his message to the American congress, were greatly disappointed.

MESSAGE HARMLESS

Washington, Sept. 17.—In comparison with what had been expected from President Huerta, his message impressed Washington as being quite moderate and comparatively harmless. It is admitted, however, that even such a message as Huerta did read before the Mexican congress will not in all probability help matters much.

Thomas A. Edison Forced to Stay Away From Work by Sickness.

Thomas A. Edison, the famous wizard of electricity, was forced to remain away from work because of illness. Many men seem to be glad of the opportunity to gain a respite from their daily toil, no matter if it is through sickness. But Edison is such an ardent exponent of the human grindstone, spending most of his waking hours in his laboratory and sleeping but a few hours each night, that when the doctor ordered him to stay at home in West Orange, N. J., the public began to think that the inventor must really be ill. It was the first time in eight years that Edison had stayed away from his daily experiments. This characteristic picture shows how Edison looks today.

UNCLE SAMUEL TAKES A HAND COUNSEL FOR THAW WON EVERY POINT Fugitive Now a Prisoner of the Federal Government.

Littleton, N. H., Sept. 17.—Counsel for Harry Thaw won every point they contended for before United States District Judge Edgar Aldrich. The hearing on the writ of habeas corpus was suspended indefinitely, and the suggestion of William Travers Jerome that it had been sued out in bad faith was quashed. Furthermore, Thaw's lawyers managed to persuade Governor Parker to postpone the hearing on the question of Thaw's extradition until next Tuesday.

Thaw is now a prisoner of the United States government. He was remanded to the custody of Marshal E. P. Nute and locked up in Thayer's hotel, the best in town. By mutual agreement between Judge Aldrich, Mr. Jerome and counsel for Thaw, the hearing of the writ will be postponed until after Governor Parker has either decided to extradite Thaw or to give him his liberty in this state. Should Governor Parker refuse to extradite him the writ issued by Judge Aldrich will be automatically dropped and there will be nothing for the New York officers to do but to go back to New York empty handed. This at least is what Jerome himself said. On the other hand, should he sign an executive warrant for Thaw's extradition, the writ will be continued on an amended basis, and it eventually it is dismissed by Judge Aldrich an appeal may be taken to the supreme court of the United States.

In addition to legal advantages gained by Thaw, he was again the hero of crowds of New Hampshire people.

PASSAGE WILL COME SHORTLY WITH BUT FEW ALTERATIONS

CHANGES MADE IN MONEY BILL

Amendments Offered By the Committee Are Agreed To.

AFFECT SEVERAL FEATURES

Modification of the Senate's Cotton Futures Tax Amendment to the Tariff Bill To Be Considered by the Conference—Gunpowder and Fulminates Go On the Free List—Spirited Debate in the House.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The Democratic currency bill continues to bear the assaults and objections of Republicans in successful fashion. It is generally agreed on both sides of the chamber that the measure will come up for passage tomorrow.

The principal debate was over the provision creating the federal reserve board and that regulating rediscout of the commercial paper held by banks which become members of regional reserve banks. Attempts to enlarge the federal reserve board, to eliminate members of the cabinet from its composition and to change the salaries to be paid the civilian members were all defeated.

The most important amendment was offered from the committee and was agreed to, with several Democrats voting against it. This would provide that member banks shall have unlimited rediscout privileges with reserve banks. Another amendment adopted would provide that discounted paper shall have a maturity of more than 90 days, instead of 60, as originally intended.

Cotton Futures Tax.

Modification of the senate's cotton futures tax amendment to the tariff bill to make the provision acceptable to the house will be considered by the tariff conference committee within a day or two.

A substitute for the Clarke amendment, submitted to the conferees by Representative Lever of South Carolina, chairman of the house committee on agriculture, would provide that the tax of one-tenth of 1 cent per pound, or 50 cents per bale, shall not be assessed where the cotton contracts call for regular government grades and such grades are actually delivered, or where the difference in price is paid if another grade is delivered.

This and other changes will be considered in the belief that the cotton futures amendment finally will be retained as a regulatory provision as well as a revenue-raising feature.

The house members accepted the senate amendments putting gunpowder and fulminates on the free list.

STATE EXAMINATION AND REGULATION OF SEVEN LOCAL BANKS

Seven Banking Concerns in This County Which Have Heretofore Never Been Under State Inspection Are Placed in Class of the State Regulated Banks, and So Far as Known All Will Submit Accordingly—All Private and Partnership Banks in State are Affected by the Law.

So far as known every banking institution in the county which has not heretofore come under state inspection, will submit to the new law requiring state examination and regulation of all banking concerns, and will not seek a change of name to prevent the state banking department from making examinations.

Under the new law, "no corporation not organized under the laws of this state, or of the United States, or person, partnership or association, shall use the word 'bank', 'banker' or 'banking' or 'trust' or 'trust company' or words of a similar meaning in any foreign language, as a designation or name under which business may be conducted in this state unless such corporation, person, partnership or association shall submit to inspection, examination, and regulation" as provided in the new law.

Heretofore private and partnership banks have not been under state examination and regulation. State banks have been under state examination and National banks under federal examination, but private or partnership banks have not been required to submit to inspection.

The banks in this county affected by the new law are the Peoples & Drivers, The Fayette County, The Commercial of this city, The Farmers and Citizens banks of Jeffersonville, the Peoples of Bloomington and the Milledgeville bank.

The new law went into effect September 1st and if any bank coming under the new law sought to prevent inspection, a change of name would be necessary in order to eliminate the words "bank", "banker", "banking", "trust" or "trust company".

A sworn statement of the condition of the concern must be filed by each bank coming under the new law, before January 1, 1914. One of the parts of the general statement must be a statement of the responsibility and net worth of the individual members of such corporation, person, partnership or association.

If he deems a bank safe, after examining the report and ascertaining the true conditions, the State Superintendent of Banks issues a certificate accordingly. If a bank is found to be in a questionable condition, the Superintendent of Banks may at once take charge of such institution as the law has heretofore provided in cases where state banks have been found insolvent.

Other requirements of the law are that a printed list of owners of stock, and that the bank is a private one, shall be posted in a conspicuous place. That the word "unincorporated" shall be printed upon stationery and advertising matter, and that depositors shall have first lien on the assets.

All provisions of the new act will not go into effect until July 1, 1914, but beginning with the first of this month reports must be made to the State Bank Superintendent.

BURGLARS BUSY IN BAINBRIDGE

Eagles' hardware store, Parkers' saloon and the postoffice at Bainbridge were burglarized Monday night by unknown thieves who secured many valuable articles and some money, making their escape without leaving a clue behind.

Several letters in the postoffice were opened and a few stamps stolen, but the men were unable to open two safes. Home talent is suspected.

Hartman Theater

Miss Billie Burke, loved by all who have seen her, is to be an early visitor at the Hartman theatre, playing an engagement of two nights and a matinee, opening on Friday, September 26th. This season she is to be seen in "The Amazons", which was revived for her by Mr. Frohman last spring and which is said to be admirably adapted to her charms. The story of this play is of a girl whose mother (a very eccentric woman) has brought her girls up as boys, but when they reach womanhood the young ladies insist upon enjoying themselves and falling in love after the fashion of other girls. Miss Burke is surrounded by an exceptionally fine cast and the attraction is one not to be missed.

JUDGE FERNEDING IS CHIEF JUSTICE

Popular Jurist of Local Circuit Who Is Youngest Member of Ohio Court of Appeals Is Signally Honored by Fellow Jurists at Meeting in Columbus Yesterday.

Judge H. L. Ferneding, of Dayton, one of the judges of the Court of Appeals for this district, and who is well known as a jurist of more than ordinary ability, was elected Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals at a meeting of the Ohio Circuit judges in Columbus Tuesday. Judge Phil M. Crow of Kenton, was re-elected Secretary. Assignments of cases and time of sessions in the eight districts of the state were also fixed.

The honor conferred upon Judge Ferneding is all the more apparent when it is known that he is the youngest member of the court.

The new Chief Justice succeeds Judge Richard M. Voorhees, of Coshocton, who has served one year—a full term as the presiding officer over the 24 Circuit Judges representing the eight districts of the state. The Chief Justiceship is increased in importance by the fact that in addition to presiding over the Court of Appeals he will have the assignment and transfer of Circuit and Common Pleas Judges in districts where the docket may be clogged or the regular judge is disqualified.

Judge Ferneding was elected a Circuit Judge in November, 1910, as a Democrat. He defeated Judge E. B. Dillon, of Columbus, who had been nominated by the Republicans to succeed Judge Theodore Sullivan, of Troy. Judge Dillon is a Common Pleas Judge.

One important change in the rules was made under which applications for rehearing of cases in the Courts of Appeals must be filed within 30 days after the adjournment of the court term. The Judges called on Governor Cox yesterday morning.

FRANK L. STUTSON

MINNESOTA CHURCHMEN INVITE REV. FREDERICK E. ROSS AND OFFER HIM TEMPTING SALARY

New Pastor of Grace Church is Requested to Return to Western State, but the Earnest Plea is Virtually Denied—Rev. Ross Declares That He Prefers to Complete Work Begun in This City—Local Congregation Deeply Interested

With the close of his first year as pastor of Grace M. E. church, Rev.
Frederick E. Ross has received a call to St. Anthony Park M. E. church, St. Paul, Minnesota, at a very substantial increase in salary.

The call was received several days since, but did not become publicly known until today. As a result the congregation was much surprised and every member of the church acquainted with the facts expressed himself as desirous that Rev. Ross shall remain with us.

Practically unanimous is the love and esteem in which Rev. Ross is held by his congregation, and this, taken together with the success he has accomplished, although his work is really only begun in this city, makes it quite evident that he would be given up very reluctantly.

It is very doubtful, however, if this phase of the situation will be confronted by Grace church. Rev. Ross has replied to his friends in Minnesota virtually declining the offer, calling attention to the harmony that prevails here, the unanimous request of the official board of the church that he remain here another year and to the further fact that his one year's pastorate in Washington has only prepared the church for a much greater work yet to be done.
In all probability this will close the incident insofar as the Minnesota charge is concerned, but the affair cannot help but cause a closer union between pastor and congregation and an effort on the part of the latter to increase the salary considerably. This matter will undoubtedly be taken up at a meeting of the church officials within a few days.

Rev. Ross is universally regarded by the members of his congregation and the citizens generally as a man of unusual attainments and a pulpitator of the first rank. His sympathetic nature, pleasing personality, broadminded logic, forceful delivery and tireless energy have endeared him to the hearts of the people. He is also well known and held in high esteem in Minnesota and Wisconsin, where he spent thirteen years in the pastorate of churches in those conferences.

Prospectuses of the Washington Lecture Course will be distributed within the next few days.

Poetry For Today

THE GATHERING.
Time rolls his ceaseless course. The race of yore,
Who danced our infancy upon their knee,
And told our marvellous boyhood
legends store,
Of their strange ventures hopped
by land or sea
How are they blotted from the things that be!
How few, all weak and withered of their force,
Wait on the verge of dark eternity,
Like stranded wrecks, the tide returning hoarse,
To sweep them from our sight! Time rolls his ceaseless course.

Yet live there still who can remember well,
How, when a mountain chief his bugle blew,
Both field and forest, dingle, cliff and dell,
And solitary heath, the signal knew,
And fast the faithful clan around him drew,
What time the warning note was keenly wound,
What time aloft their kindred banner flew,
While clamorous war-pipes yelled
the gathering sound,
And while the fiery cross glanced,
like a meteor round.
—Sir Walter Scott.

INTERESTING
BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)
Official reports say the fishing industry of Chesapeake bay is in danger unless the federal government in co-operation of state of Maryland and Virginia can enforce existing laws governing fish nets and traps in these waters. The chief engineer of the army speaks of excessive catches of fish by fertilizer factories which line the shores of Chesapeake bay.

Country store keeping is to be taught in one of the Kansas state educational institutions, probably the State Agricultural college, according to an announcement of the state board. Subjects to be included on the new course are as follows:
Writing advertisements for country weeklies, displaying goods, handling customers, pushing certain lines of goods, decorating store windows and buying.

Automatic stokers will displace firemen on Pennsylvania railroad according to D. B. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania lines west. In an address to the delegates to the International Association for the Prevention of Smoke, Mr. Crawford claimed the change would solve the smoke question.

Contractors are beginning the work of clearing areas for the new park which is to connect the capital at Washington with the Union station. Twelve city squares have been acquired by act of Congress. The new park will be as wide as the north front of the capital grounds and is to contain 30 acres. The park will likely be called the Acropolis, and when completed it shall have other things which are to recall in other ways the famous citi-del of Athens. In time the new park will contain statues of public men and famous women and will give visitors to Washington the most beautiful outlook from the Union station of any capital in the world.

Thirteen states will be traversed by the Lincoln highway, the route of which was announced in a proclamation issued from the offices of the association today. The states which will be honored by this memorial to Abraham Lincoln are New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada and California. Starting in New York City the highway ends in San Francisco. The directors of the Lincoln Highway association have endeavored to select a route of easy grades, yet combining the scenic splendors of the country. Some of the points either on, adjacent to or to be connected by branch highways are Gettysburg, Washington, Canton, Ohio, the Mammoth Cave, the home of Lincoln in Springfield, Lincoln's birthplace in Kentucky, the scenic splendors of Colorado, the Grand Canon of the Colorado, and the many and varied wonders of Utah, Nevada and California.

Most American Business Men Honest

By HARRY G. WHEELER, President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States

THE indiscriminate attacks made upon business generally on the public platform and in the daily and periodical press of the country is UNJUST.

The popular prejudice which was first roused against the railroad has extended its line of attack to include the industrial life of the nation and the profession of banking. Popular sentiment has it that all who have been successful in the accumulation of wealth have become so by predatory means and that ROTTENNESS UNDERLIES THE EN-TIRE COMMERCIAL FABRIC OF THE NATION.

As an argument for the larger governmental regulation of business, one of the candidates in the last presidential campaign repeatedly declared that the business interests of the country were engaged in a CHAOTIC STRUGGLE TO DEVOUR EACH OTHER and that all were combined in an effort to enslave the workingman.

For ten years this campaign of misrepresentation has been going on,
with little or no contradiction on the part of business.

NINETY PER CENT OF BUSINESS IS HONEST. THE AMERICAN BUSINESS MAN STANDS IN THE FOREFRONT OF THOSE WHO AD-HERE TO THE HIGHEST PRINCIPLES OF HONOR AND INTEGRITY, BUT SINGLE HANDED HE HAS BEEN POWERLESS TO PRESENT A PROPER DEFENSE.

Battleships Are Needed to Secure Peace

By Congressman WILLIAM KENT of California

POSSESSING such luxuries as the Philippines and such a doctrine as bears the name of Monroe and having at times forgotten our manners, we REQUIRE BATTLESHIPS.

Early in my career in congress I voted for no battleships at all. I believed that a battleship was a SENSELESS WASTE, an example of expenditure of money for junk and no more excusable than brass knuckles among civilized peoples, but now I vote for a larger navy. This does not mean that I have changed my opinions as to the stupidity of war.

I FAVOR MORE BATTLESHIPS AS A NECESSITY TO SECURE
PEACE, FOR WE CANNOT EVER HAVE DEMOCRACY ESTABLISHED
THE FACE OF RACIAL QUESTIONS AND ANTIPATHIES. AS A NATIONAL POWER WE HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR, BUT AS A POWER, "WHATEVER THAT MAY MEAN, WE NEED SHIPS.

MURDER MYSTERY

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 17.—The body of a middle-aged man was found in a hollow near the canal by boys who were swimming in the canal. There was a wound on the neck and one on the wrist, which, together with the fact the body had been apparently concealed under a briar bush, led the police to look for other evidence of foul play.

FRAUDULENT NAMES

Columbus, O., Sept. 17.—State officials claim that more than half of the 12,000 signatures collected in Franklin county by the peddlers of the Warnes and Kilpatrick law referendum petitions are fraudulent. The estimate was made after a prolonged session before Secretary of State Graves, in which nearly 150 petitions had been thrown out as bogus. Arrests are imminent.

SUMS CHICAGO WOMEN SPEND FOR DRESS.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—An estimate submitted to the semi-annual convention of the Chicago Dressmakers' club shows how the women of Chicago dress. The table reads: "A few, $75,000; one hundred social leaders, $50,000; ten thousand others, $5,000; well-dressed club women, $1,500; the suffragists, $500; the church workers, $500; the social workers, $300; the stenographers, $275; the shop girls, $250; the factory girls, $200."

Police Find Clues.

Hastings-On-Hudson, N. Y., Sept. 17.—The authorities who are trying to untangle the mystery of the murder of the man whose body was found near Rowley's ravine, a half mile south of here, found two clues which may lead to the man's identification. Besides this they have a good description of the woman who was seen near the body just before it was discovered, and are bending their efforts to find her. All the evidence which has been revealed so far points toward this woman, and the police are sure that at the least she had a guilty knowledge of the crime.

Hotel Attacked by Fire.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Fire which broke out in the plant of the Brnbarger Popcorn company spread to the Broedel hotel, next door, and within a few minutes the third, fourth and fifth floors of the hostelry were ablaze. No fatalities were recorded. Two men were injured. Policemen and employees of the house rushed through the hallways and aroused the guests.

Shooting Affray On Train.

Newark, O., Sept. 17.—James Lehman, 30, Cleveland traveling man, is in the hospital here, believed to be fatally wounded, following a shooting affray on a Pennsylvania train at Conesville, Coshocton county. Lehman is wounded in the groin. He was en route from Pittsburgh to Columbus. He refuses to discuss the case.

Woman Takes Poison by Mistake.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 17.—Mrs. Franklin Schreyer Scrambling, wife of Captain Charles B. Scrambling of the Cleveland Grays, a crack military company, and socially prominent here, died at her home from a poison taken by mistake. She had just returned from a social function and mistook the poison she swallowed for headache tablets.

American Refugees Safe.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Department officials were greatly relieved at the receipt of dispatches from Saltillo saying that the party of 100 American refugees expected from Torreon had arrived at Saltillo.

The big show starts tomorrow

OUR ANNUAL Fall Stove Show, which opens tomorrow, will be a regular three-ring circus. No peanuts or red lemonade; no clowns or trapeze performers; but so many interesting new things on display in our stove department that you'll hardly know where to look first.

We do not claim, like Barnum, that this is "the greatest show on earth," but we do say, in all sincerity, that it is a show of the greatest stoves on earth.

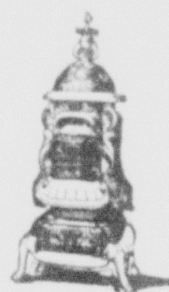

Estate Stoves & Ranges

have been pleasing the public for almost three-quarters of a century, and have won universal recognition as the best built, longest wearing, and most scientifically constructed stoves in America. They have always led in improvements, and this year, more than ever before, they mark a great advance in stove building.

Special Attraction

Estate Hot Storm

—The Stove with a "Little Furnace" in It.

A BRAND new idea in heating stove construction. Famous Estate Oak body, with a furnace built inside the fire chamber—a feature which gives the Estate Hot Storm practically double the heating power of any ordinary soft-coal stove.

You're invited to see the whole show at our store. Come soon, whether you're ready to buy or not; we want you to know why you should "Own an Estate."

OHIO HAPPENINGS

More Liquor License Rulings.

Columbus, O., Sept. 17.—Attorney General Hogan, in an opinion to the state license commissioners, recognized the legal right of recently formed corporations to apply for saloon licenses, stating that they need not be a year old, though an individual applicant must have lived in Ohio one year. As anticipated, the attorney general also held that a license may be granted to a saloonkeeper who rents part of a building owned by a brewer.

Sunbonnet Caused Her Death.

Toledo, O., Sept. 17.—Blinded by a sunbonnet, Mrs. Jennie Denton, 85, walked to her death beneath a Terminal railway locomotive. The aged woman, who had lived alone, was picking up bits of coal along the track when the train advanced.

School Girls Hit by Train.

Fremont, O., Sept. 17.—While en route home from school Layola Swint, 16, got too close to the Lake Shore tracks at the Park avenue crossing and was struck by the engine of the eastbound fast mail train and will die from injuries.

Boy Run Down and Killed.

Upper Sandusky, O., Sept. 17.—William Grady, son of James Grady of Zanesville, was run over by a Hocking Valley train here. He died several hours later.

STRONG LECTURE COURSE WILL OPEN OCTOBER 2ND WITH HIGH CLASS NUMBER

Washington Lecture Course Committee. Busy Preparing for the Usher- ing in of an Exceptionally Strong Line of Entertainers.

PROSPECTUSES WILL SOON BE READY FOR THE PUBLIC.

Famed Madame Scotney, the Grand Opera Singer, and Other Noted Musicians Will Appear in Opening Number—Committee Begged With Inquiries Concerning Sale of Tickets and Distribution of Prospectuses.

The Washington Lecture Course committee has secured a revised list of the seven peerless attractions offered to the public for the season of 1913-14, and within the next few days the prospectuses will be ready for distribution, and tickets will be on sale.

In making the selection the committee endeavored to secure talent that would make every number an exceptionally good one, and in offering the seven superb numbers it is believed that it will prove one of the most, if not the most popular course ever booked for lovers of the very best of entertainment.

Every number speaks for itself, and every number is a good one. And in addition to the seven numbers the committee is planning an innovation which it is believed will be received with pleasure by all patrons of the course, and without additional charge.

Never before has a higher class of musicians appeared in this city than will be those who compose the widely known and much sought after Scotney Company, which will be the opening number of the course, and will appear here on the night of Thursday, October 2nd. It is one of the most expensive numbers ever secured in the city and one which undoubtedly will please every person attending.

Madame Evelyn Scotney, the great soprano, protégée of the famous Melba, is a Grand Opera singer of rare ability and her singing has received the plaudits of millions. Other members of the company are Edward White, basso and violin-cellist, Karl Barleben, peer of any violinist in the world, and Frank Waller, a pianist of the first magnitude.

The Boston Musical club on November 7th is another high class musicale that will appeal to patrons of the course. The club consists of four men and four women—each a splendid soloist widely known throughout the United States.

Benjamin Chapin in his impersonation of Abraham Lincoln, December 9th, is sure to please his auditors and give them a deeper insight into the life of the Great Lincoln. Mr. Chapin lives Lincoln every day of his life, and comes highly recommended by all critics.

Ralph Parlette, the Humorist, who proved so popular with patrons of the course last year, and who was brought back at the urgent request of four-fifths of those expressing themselves, will appear December 22.

Dr. George R. Stuart, on January 5th is expected to prove a pleasant surprise to all who have not heard the noted lecturer from the south. He is much sought after and the local lecture course committee were fortunate in securing one of the few remaining open dates for the appearance of Dr. Stuart.

Washington citizens are acquainted with the work of the Collegiate Quartette which carried the house by storm last season, and will welcome the appearance of the quartette on February 18th.

Albert Edward Wiggam, "the Apostle of Efficiency", will appear April 1st. More than a million people have paid to hear Mr. Wiggam in his noted lectures. He has a number of excellent topics and is a very forceful speaker, and one that is sure to please. Season tickets this year will be the same price as last year—$1.50 for adults and 75c for children. The large number of inquiries pouring in upon the committee indicates the deep interest that is being taken in the coming course.

It will be noticed that three of the numbers this year are high class musicales, which always prove popular with Washington audiences.

Every number worth the price of a season ticket—The Washington Lecture Course.

UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT AT PALACE THEATER

An entirely unique entertainment will be put on at the Palace theater Thursday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, when Mr. Jess W. Smith invites all the ladies of Fayette county to a "Princess Fashion Reception."

A ten thousand dollar moving picture film, three thousand feet in length, will throw on the big picture screen styles of our great grandmothers in contrast with styles of today, further enlivened by the amusing experiences of Mrs. Carter Worthington in her search for a costume for the Costume Pageant of the Delaware society. This Costume Pageant will be shown followed by a parade of living models, wearing the styles of the season.

Tickets are given free gratis in any department of the Smith store and there is no doubt that the Palace theater will be crowded for this fashion exhibit in moving pictures.

The Scotney Company, October 2, is the first and one of the best numbers of the Washington Lecture Course.

The leading demulcent qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound are not duplicated in any other medicine for coughs and colds. Any substitute offered you is an inferior article. Refuse to accept it for it can not produce the healing and soothing effect of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Insist upon the genuine, which contains no opiates.—Blackmer & Tanquary. Advt.

RALPH O. COCHRAN.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 15.—Ralph O. Cochran, a prominent real estate dealer and member of the general assembly, has announced his candidacy to succeed United States Senator Hoke Smith. He is thirty-nine years old and is a native Georgian. He was educated at the University of Georgia and at Washington and Lee university, at Lexington, Va. He has been active in Democratic politics, but his only office has been that of assemblyman. If Cochran should be elected he would set a precedent for a rapid rise in the political field in this state.

The Scotney Company, October 2, is the first and one of the best numbers of the Washington Lecture Course.

THE RACING SEASON.

August Belmont Says Public Wants to See Horses Run.

"The thoroughbred racing season just closed was successful beyond all anticipations," said August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey club, a few days ago. "It showed two things—first, that the people want racing and that they are willing to support it without a betting ring, and, second, that the men now interested in the turf are willing to maintain a string of race horses without the slightest thought of whether the horses will pay their way or become a burden. On the strength of the support accorded the turf this season I believe the racing season next year will be a greater one."

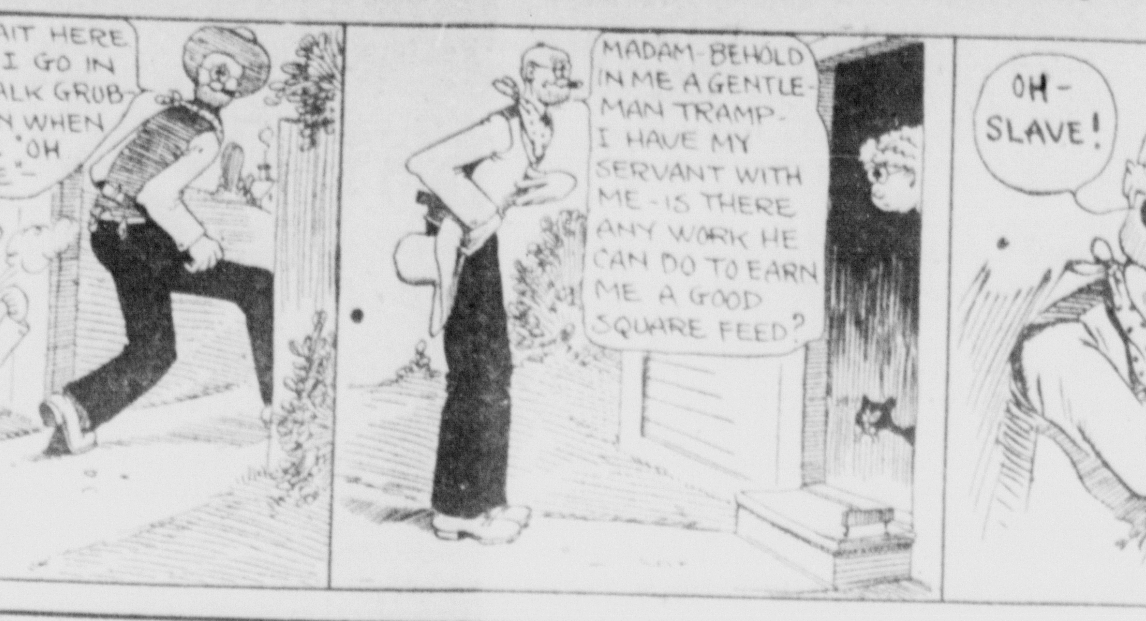

"The public paid a fine tribute to racing all season long. When men and women go frequently to the track and sit in the grand stand and look at the horses race it shows that they are deeply interested in the sport. They want racing just as much as many other persons want baseball. Another pleasant feature of the season was the way many new patrons of the turf bought and maintained race horses in the face of a financial loss."

"This showed true sportsmanship. The men paid big prices for horses, knowing that under the present conditions, with stakes worth only a trifling sum in comparison with other years, there was no chance for a return on the money invested. And yet in spite of all many new men became members of the Jockey club, bought horses and raced them for the pure enjoyment of the sport."

Catcher Street May Come Back.

Charles (Gabby) Street has been playing such a great game with Kid Elberfeld's Chattanooga team that rumors of his being wanted again in fast company have begun to spread around. One of these says that Walter Johnson would like to have his old battery mate back, despite the fact that the Senators have three good catchers in Almsmith, Henry and Williams.

The Boss Is The Very Latest Thing In Tramps

BUD GOODWIN, "HUMAN PICKEREL," TO QUIT SWIMMING AFTER DEFEATS

New York, Sept. 17.—Bud Goodwin is going to give up the swimming game. The "human pickerel", as this great swimmer is called, was recently defeated twice in important races, and he concluded that the time had come when he would have to give way to youngsters in the sport. Gilbert E. Tomlinson, the young Philadelphia, won the 880 yard A. A. U. title from Goodwin, and shortly afterward both Goodwin and Tomlinson were defeated by J. C. Wheatley, swimming unattached, in the 440 yard championship of the country held under the New York A. C. auspices at Travers Island, New York. Goodwin has won every swimming title of note and was considered the fastest man in water in the country.

GREAT CAREER FOR SCHALK.

Old Timers Say Youngster Will Be Second Buck Ewing.

A boy, not old enough to vote, is the best young catcher in baseball. He is Ray Schalk of the Chicago White Sox.

Two years ago Schalk was playing on the corner lots and in the fields around his home town in southern Illinois. Last season he caught for Milwaukee, being purchased by Charles A. Comiskey at a high price last fall, and instantly earning the commendation of the severest critics in the big league.

This year Schalk is the mainstay of the White Sox catching department. He is Ed Walsh's pet catcher. The Manager Joe Cantillon of the Minneapolis club has inaugurated a procedure that is being followed now by every other team in the American association, says a truthful Chicago correspondent.

Early this year while he and his team were on their way from Minneapolis to Indianapolis to begin a series they arrived in Chicago on an open date, and Joe took the players out as his guests to see a game between the Cubs and Dodgers. They all sat together in boxes, and the manager called their attention from time to time to features of the play. Whenever the proper conditions of an open date and trip arise now there is an American association team watching the game.

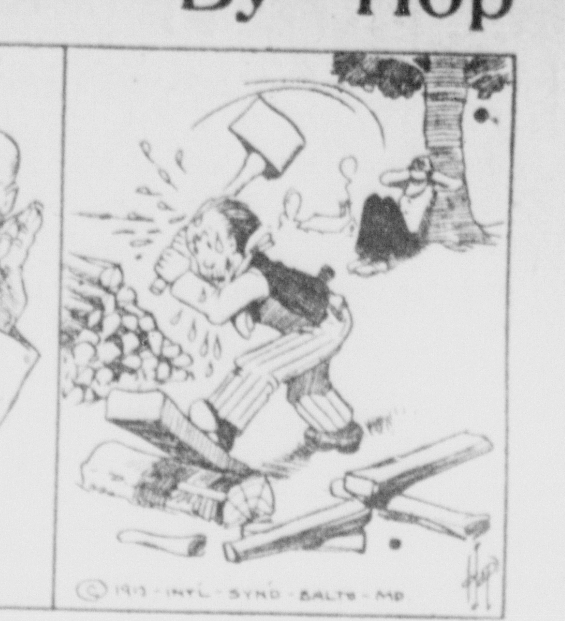

A new baseball league is to be organized in eight southern cities, according to plans of the promoters, which have been under way for months, and are now perfected. Chattanooga, Atlanta, Birmingham, New Orleans, Memphis, Little Rock and Shreveport are to compose the eight club circuit, which will be named the Dixie Baseball league.

Memphis promoters are behind the scheme. It is said that the Dixie league will be associated with the Federal league, which is operating in opposition to the National and American leagues.

Waring Signed by Athletics.

George Waring, a member of the Saratoga (N. Y.) baseball team and one of the best semiprofessional pitchers in his state, has been signed by the Philadelphia American league club.

AN EXPOSITION

Worth Seeing a Display of Extraordinary Proportions—A County Fair Right on the Streets.

Yes, and it is all free too. No admission to pay. No bother about digging out your change to see this big show. It is free. The Chillicothe Farmers' Fall Festival is a show on a new scale, a county fair of the modern kind where the wealth of the farm and the field and garden, where the good things of the housewives' kitchen, her art in canning, in baking, in sewing, in fancy work, in candy making, in amateur photography and kindred arts which go to home making, are displayed without charge. The entrance fee to these displays for these grand prizes costs nothing but a postal card. The price of admission to the big festival is also eliminated and adding to this there will be grand free acts every evening and afternoon, not one, but four or five.

The date of this great show is September 22 to 27, a whole week of it, with big attractions every day. Old Fiddlers' contest Tuesday, the Governor opening it Monday night, lantern parade Tuesday night, horse show Wednesday afternoon and evening, automobile parade Thursday, grand home coming Friday, with Butter Babies show and a grand mardigras Saturday night. There will be dozens of interesting contests, not the least being that for the biggest family in Ross county.

Ross county invites all her friends and neighbors to come. Adjoining counties asked to enter the special horse classes for prizes.

See the elephant walk the rope every afternoon and evening.

FRIENDSHIP LOAN ONLY

New York, Sept. 17.—"Judge" Hugh J. Reilly told the impeachment managers that Governor Sulzer owes him $26,500 and tried to borrow $40,000 or $50,000 more last week. He said he gave Mr. Sulzer $10,000 three or four days after the latter's nomination for governor, although Mrs. Reilly advised him not to do it. He swore that the $10,000 was not a campaign contribution; that it was a friendship loan which Mr. Sulzer promised to repay in February, but didn't.

WHY NERO TORTURED CHRISTIANS

Historical Facts and Discussions Provoked by "Quo Vadis"

Glorious Photo Drama Now Being Presented at the Cincinnati Music Hall—Creating a Great Deal of Discussion and Comment Among All Classes.

George Kleine's photo-drama wonder "Quo Vadis," now at the Cincinnati Music Hall for an indefinite stay, is creating a great deal of discussion and comment all over the country. Many readers and students of history take exception to the picture on the ground of fact. However, Mr. Geo. Kleine claims to pictorialize Sienkiewicz's romance rather than history and, whatever deviations from the truth occur, the responsibility lies with the author of the novel. The questions that are most debatable seem to be the cause of the burning of Rome and the persecution of the Christians.

Nero, the evil genius of Rome, as he is depicted in the moving pictures. The drama of "Quo Vadis," in which he will be seen, is holding the boards at Music Hall.

In the Kleine photo-drama Nero is held directly responsible for the burning of Rome and when he discovers the effect it has upon the people he tries to shift the blame upon the Christians. Historians differ as to the cause of this particular conflagration, many attributing it to natural accident inasmuch as the city had been partially destroyed upon several occasions before and also because it was liable to very easy destruction on account of its narrow and intricate alleys and the irregularity of its streets. Many claim that it broke out in a business section of the city in which vast quantities of oil and other destructible matter were stored and that because of the vast number of wooden buildings it was easy prey for fire.

Some authorities accuse Nero of deliberately firing the city because of his well-known and often-expressed ambition to rebuild it, but whether this is a fact or not is open to debate. Tacitus, the great historian, does not attempt to convey the impression that Nero originated the fire or the rumor that the Christians had started it. Many able critics insist that the course he took in permitting the Christians to assume the responsibility was forced upon him and that he adopted it with reluctance.

That he permitted the Christians to be tortured and threw them to the lions is true, but other Roman Emperors followed his example and, curiously enough, the best of them were most hostile to the spread of Christianity because they believed that its teaching would result in upsetting the empire. Tacitus detested Nero because he was of the Julian race.

In fact, Nero and all of his predecessors of the line of Caesars were hated by the patricians for upsetting the republic. However, that his heart and nature were not so black as painted by Sienkiewicz and others is partly proven by the fact that after he died the common people strewn flowers on his grave and were apparently devoted to him, while the patrician element did everything to blacken his memory.

"Quo Vadis" as presented by Mr. Kleine, however, is full of so many interesting features that one might discuss them for hours and for pages. Suffice it to say that they are well worth the time of anyone who enjoys the finest that may be obtained in photo-drama.

Characteristic Pictures of Late Mayor W. J. Gaynor, Who Died at Sea and Body Shipped to America.

While the body of Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York city was being brought to America on the Lusitania expressions of sympathy were received by the family from all parts of the country. Mayor Gaynor was beyond doubt a national figure. Not only was he widely known because of the attempt to assassinate him three years ago, but because his name was mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination for president before the Baltimore convention nominated Woodrow Wilson. These characteristic pictures of the dead mayor are interesting, particularly the one with the spade, which was taken at the time he accepted the independent nomination for re-election as mayor just before he sailed on what proved to be his death voyage.

FUSIONISTS ACTIVE

New York, Sept. 17.—Job E. Hedges, Republican nominee for governor last fall, has refused to be the personal conductor of the Mitchell campaign. In default of him the fusionists will turn to William Loeb, Jr., Mr. Mitchell's predecessor as collector of the port of New York. Mr. Loeb's friends think that he also will decline the job.
